

House Resolution No. 2410

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State youths who admirably demonstrate their true potential as lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders through the excellence of their accomplishments as students; and

Whereas, Matt Schwab of Saint Charles, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a senior at Francis Howell North High School; and

Whereas, ranked second in his class, Matt Schwab has a 4.7 grade point average, is a Missouri 100 Scholar, won the Elliot Scholarship to attend Washington University, is a member of German Club, and serves as a freshman mentor, the treasurer for National Honor Society, and captain of the cross country and track teams; and

Whereas, Matt Schwab plans to continue his education after high school by studying medicine; and

Whereas, in addition to his educational pursuits, Matt Schwab is an usher at Saints Joachim and Ann Catholic Church and enjoys hunting, fishing, and travel; and

Whereas, Matt Schwab is justifiably proud also to be known as the son of Jack and Elizabeth Schwab and the brother of Andrew and Nick; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative actions in order to recognize such outstanding Missouri students as Matt Schwab:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and academic accomplishments garnered thus far in the life of Matt Schwab and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Matt Schwab of Saint Charles, Missouri.
